[Bring the Best] (1). Holiday

Bedge Trummet Presents | [Bring the Best] "Exhaust Fumes of High Performance Haikai" (Trummet Tape
no.1)

"Holiday"

I am sooo glad my co-pilot loves vehicular activities
and
the full lot compiled of all things automotive.

Holidays are a motion enriching excursion
from all modes of transportation. 75% vehicular,
and the rest varies depending on customs, climate,
cultures, and country. It's a haul, but one hellova great time.

This place is huge. There is always somewhere new to roam and ruffle through and rent for a span of time.

Then, there are holidays when we find ourselves hunkered down for an entire week's worth of indoor experiences, exploration, and experiments.

Whatever goes.

It's a holiday vacation.

And writing is always there.

Always in the seat. Dressed, ready to go.

First to open up, last to shut it all down.

[Bring the Best] (2). Plane Ticket

Bedge Trummet Presents | [Bring the Best]
"Exhaust Fumes of High Performance Haikai" (Trummet Tape no.1)

"Plane Ticket"

One Way.

First class, and I tried to get a seat on the wings
like on the OUTSIDE of the plane and experience the 9 hour flight
in 'EXTREMELY CRAZY TO BE HERE' mode
but the security and administration and local enforcement
would NOT have that, so, I was bumped from business to the backpack (not quite a cockpit, but not in the area of the regular passengers. My OWN spot)
And we flew.
