mental health matters

you are loved you are cared for many take it for granted but when I look at you or them i see the sun and the flowers, the most beautiful humans on planet earth ## the greatest man kind

i always disliked the humans who would hurt the most precious and greatest humans that exist those who would do anything for anyone or a creature, even save them no matter what or remove their passed body's the humans that care very much for one another, the ones people joke about while they'd put all their love into them and anything in this world

happiness

happiness is music and them.

tired

i must be tired
i must be angry
i must try
i must stay calm
i must smile
i must be angry

old me

oh haley where'd you go your leaps of joy the happiness you get with them the laughter that would go on forever oh simple thing where have you gone? oh the joyest things we would do the joy I'd get the fun we did, all adventures living life making friends

finding that group and living life like there's no tomorrow

oh haley
oh haley i hope you find that and oh haley i hope your happy oh haley i hope you live life oh haley find that joy and laughter again

oh haley.
