-------------------------	-----------

you don't...

you don't get to have an opinion on my mental health

ever

not even for one second

never again

somewhere along the way i stopped being me

unfinished

we will forever be unfinished the cliffhanger ending never written the puzzle never solved unfinished business

that's all we will ever be disappointment

yet you are nowhere to be found i reach out hoping your hand finds mine i am met with only disappointment
