Poem: Don't Forget

Written By: Kiana S.

Remember, the old saying;
forgive, but don't forget.

Don't forget the times
you gave your all to help people.

But also don't forget the times when people tried to destroy you.

Remember when they told lies
on your name,
hoping that it'll break you.

but instead it build you.
Don't forget how people lied
on your name
for financial gain,
and abused your trust.

So I speak from my heart and tell my story I must.
It's so much distrust,
in the system,
that we thought we can trust.
No wonder the world is screwed up;
and people are
stealing like lust.
So much corruption going on,
make anybody want to cuss.
I shouldn't have to put up a fuss,
for what is rightfully mine,
I know,
Eventually, all the lies and deceit
will soon be exposed.
