It's All About You

It's not about money or materials, it's all about you
What the future holds depends on what you choose
Though it appears useless and painful, keep trying
Not knowing if you are lost but you're still going
Vivacity is just another game of chance we play
And to succeed in it, education is the only way
In life, nothing is more significant than your dreams
Search for happiness, but it's harder than it seems
You'll find guidance from the lessons you learned
Just don't give away so easy what cost to earn

When one door closes another one is bound to open
A better opportunity is what we are hoping
But realize that life is only what you make it be Strive and you will find all the things you need

I hope you pay attention to what I say, cause it's true
Do what you do, be yourself cause it's all about you

Dreams a Reality

My eyes wide open to another day I made it
What the future holds is looking shaded
What will become of me as I watch time fly
Will I reach my destiny as I continue to strive
I'm dreaming and guessing but I can't say
Don't even know what will happen today
Will it be similar to the life I lead yesterday?
Is there a major change coming around my way?
That will fulfill some of my desired dreams
Surprises aren't always what they seem
When it's looking better, it just turned worse
You try to take your losses and it hurts
Sometimes bad things happen for a good reason
Without it, you won't follow your new mission
A destiny that will lead to better times
Keep my eyes open, not knowing what I'll find

Life is only what you make it be
I want to make my dreams a reality
I hear you telling me that it feels hopeless
You tried your best but it was useless
So you want to quit while you're ahead
Seems easier not being here instead
Feeling low, depressed and disillusioned

Suicidal thoughts seem like the one solution
To solve your problems, nothing else in mind
Not even thinking what you will leave behind
A younger brother, sister, son or daughter
Whose life without you becomes much harder
Left with scars and tears that won't go away
Loved one six feet under, where they lay
Think if someone you care for suddenly leaves you
If you go, the same feeling for them will be true
And even though it's our destiny that we must die
Let it be the you who chooses your time to fly
You know if in your heart you are doing right
Through the good and bad, always put up a fight
Life is only what you make it be
I want to make my dreams a reality
I envision myself very young getting paid
Buying high class luxuries as if I have it made
A son or daughter to watch them grow
See an innocence in them that I didn't know
When I die, I want to become a living legend
Troublemaker comes to mind when mentioned
An even balance of what is evil and good
Reason why through life, misunderstood
A mass confusion trying to figure me out

I'm a one of a kind without a doubt
It's helped me with the goals I've achieved
There's so much more to do before I leave

Life is only what you make it be

I want to make my dreams a reality

It's not easy

Through every dark night a brighter day lies ahead
Wipe your eyes from those tears you shed
For a happy home you will find with open arms
Life here with me will do you no harm

You found yourself with a broken heart
A false relationship that won't fall apart
No true love and feeling no respect
No one's there for you, so you suspect

But it's not easy is what you're telling me
Ask how do I deal with all my pain and misery
Feel like you don't know which way to turn
You find directions from the lessons learned

Educate yourself and always remain focused
Without it, the future seems hopeless
Don't rush it though, this life is precious
Take your time and you'll receive your blessings
Keep your head up high and you will see
Good things come to those who do believe

Head Up High

Nothing is more precious than a child to a mother
Nothing more significant than a mother to a child
But life is nevertheless empty when lacking a father
And having no discipline makes us all go wild
There's no hope without a dream to follow
Can't learn right from wrong without a model
A man with no heart to raise a son or daughter
Is not a worthy man, to me he is a coward
Who chooses not to stay but rather run away
His unfortunate children are the ones to pay
For they are heading in the wrong direction
Lost in the world looking for love and affection
The new generation grows up as criminals
This life we choose to lead, living miserable
We are blind and can't see , there's a better day
Blind and can't see education is the only way
To survive and stay alive and to succeed
But success doesn't stop the wounds that bleed
It's hard at times but keep your head up high
Life is rough and tough and we all wonder why

Tell me when will the rain stop from pouring
Who has the gift to stop death from calling
Try to do good but can't help from falling

Get up on my own cause no one else is there
Wish it wasn't like this but who said life is fair
Deep inside my mind I see a ray of sunshine
Struggle and strive searching for a better time
So ladies, always hold your heads up high
It's hard at times but keep your eyes on the prize
Without you, all that is left is a shadow of life
With no women in the world, how can we survive
Even though it appears no man will treat you right
Don't let up on yourself, have a heart to fight
I understand all the pain that you must feel
Search for happiness and let your wounds heal
I know what happened in the past can't be erased
All the scars others left won't ever go away
But happy times comes around to us naturally
IT's a surprise that finds it's way unexpectedly
Take your time, good things come to those who wait
You'll find the one for you, the perfect mate
It's hard at times, but keep your head up high
Life is rough and tough and we all wonder why

If you need me, call

Just give me a buzz and I'll be there
Doesn't matter how, doesn't matter where
I'll come cause I'm known to keep it true
When you're feeling down, I'll be there for you
Thought you knew, friends are hard to come around
A friend like me, never again will be found
Don't set me off cause I will declare a war
Turn your friends to enemies forever more
That's how it happens so expect the worst
Enemies are closest to you and it hurts
Keep a close eye on your so-called friends
Only a few of them keep it true until the end

But keep it real and you will see that I'll be down
I won't stop, keep it moving pound for pound

I'll be there to pick you up when you fall
So if you need me call and I will drop it all

See me riding alone trying to find a home
The one true love that I can call my own
Sums of money to buy the finer things
The joys and pains that a child brings
A few friends that I know I can trust
